

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY.
Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVEN'G, DEC. 3 1887.

About four hundred voters are reported on the delinquent list.

FIFTY-FIVE fines were assessed by Mayor Pearce last month.

GENUINE fresh peas—New England mince meat, at Calhoun's.

INDICATIONS: "For Kentucky, warmer, followed by cooler, rainy weather."

REGULAR services in the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning.

SERVICES in the Central Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at the usual hour.

W. W. HOLTON left last Thursday for the West. He has not decided where he will locate.

Mrs. G. G. ATHERTON was called to St. Louis this morning by the serious illness of her father, M. Tolle.

THE Northeastern Kentucky Telephone Company has removed its office to Browning & Co.'s dry goods store.

THREE car-loads of iron for the bridge at Sycamore Creek were taken up Thursday evening over the Maysville & Big Sandy Railroad.

PROFESSOR JOSEPH WILSON is at Sardis to-day attending the third monthly meeting of the Maysville and Mason County Teachers' Association.

THE young men of the "Assembly Club" gave a select soiree to the visiting young ladies after the entertainment at the opera house last evening.

JOHN DULEY, insurance agent, offers $5 premium in gold for best sample of three hands of tobacco, award to be made 1st Monday in January, 1888. 3d1t

MISS EFFIE WADELL will begin teaching the public school at Mayslick, Monday, the 5th instant, in the building occupied by William Worthington.

ELEGANT repoussé silver tea service. See it, at Ballenger's. Remember a ticket on $500 pair of diamond eardrops with every dollar's worth of goods bought of him.

MR. JAMES HENDRIXSON is a candidate for Councilman from the Fifth ward at the approaching election. He is serving his first term, having been elected a few years ago over strong opposition.

MORNING service at the Methodist Episcopal Church at 11 o'clock, sermon by Rev. Thomas Hanford, pastor, on "Leaves Driven by the Winds." Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; class meeting at 2 p. m.

THE cantata at the opera house last night was enjoyed by those who witnessed it. There was a large crowd present, considering the very inclement weather, and the entertainment was a success.

FOR weak lungs, spitting of blood, shortness of breath, consumption, night-sweats and all lingering coughs, Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Superior to cod liver oil. By druggists.

Mrs. Oron desires to return many thanks to the ladies in the cast of "Queen of Fame" for their earnest efforts in making the cantata as brilliant a success. Also the merchants, plumbers and Knights of Pythias for stage decorations.

THE Baptists will hold services as usual at the court house to-morrow. Preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. All are invited. Rev. Fred D. Hale, of Louisville, will assist the pastor in a meeting beginning the second Sunday in February.

THE annual meeting of the Mason County Bible Society will be held in the First Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening. Services at 7 p. m. The congregations of the city churches are cordially invited. Worshipers are requested to bring Gospel Hymns.

HOPPER & MURPHY, the jewelers, have a beautiful display of ladies' and gent's gold watches, and remember for every dollar's worth of goods, they give a ticket which entitles the purchaser to a chance on the elegant combination ring and stud worth $300—cash given to the winner if preferred.

THE "Old Gold" Mills shut down Thursday evening, the supply of fuel having given out. Some of the coal the proprietors, Messrs. Robinson & Co., ordered days ago from the mines is expected to reach here this evening, however, and in that event the mills will resume next Monday.

THE location of the new gas well was selected Thursday afternoon. It is about three hundred yards from the old well, and is on Messrs. Ball & Shackelford's land. The work of removing and erecting the derrick will soon be completed, and drilling will likely be commenced at an early day.

THE GREEN TRIAL.

The Defendant's Account of the Killing of Baldwin—Other Evidence.

The examining trial of Thomas M. Green on the charge of shooting and killing Lewis D. Baldwin, at Lexington, was resumed Thursday. Several witnesses testified to about the same as has been published.

Neal M. Leach, of Maysville, said: "I was standing on the portico of the Phoenix, up-stairs. I saw Green advancing on Baldwin, who seemed to be cursing him and retreating. Just then they came together, and I saw Baldwin punch Green with his pistol. I then heard something click as if a pistol was snapped. Polk was then in between them. Green then drew his pistol and then Baldwin stepped to one side. Both seemed trying to shoot without hitting Polk. Baldwin, I think, fired the first shot. Green then fired. I was then too much excited to tell anything about it distinctly, but I saw Baldwin fall. I will not swear that Baldwin fired the first shot."

Mr. Green was introduced, and the following is his testimony as published in the Daily Press: "I came to Lexington on the eleven o'clock train on the K. O. the night before the 16th. I came as a representative of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette to write a report of Joe Blackburn's speech at the unveiling. I came unarmed, but had been told of Baldwin's threats; so I went to Cabell Bullock between nine and ten o'clock that morning and borrowed a pistol from him. At the commencement of the difficulty I was walking up Main street to the hotel, and was just crossing Limestone street, when I noticed three men, none of whom I knew, but whose manner was meddlesome to me. Just as I was putting my foot on the far curbing of Limestone street, nearest the hotel, one of the men said something to me, and was gestulating with his hand. I looked at him for a moment and said to him: 'I don't know who you are.' He replied, very loud: 'Baldwin, and you owe me an apology.' 'Oh, no,' I said, 'I don't owe you any apology; I don't know you.' 'By God, you owe me an apology,' said Baldwin. I said: 'I refuse,' he then said: 'I intend to have satisfaction.' He was advancing on me with his hand behind him, and with him was his friend, who advanced and retreated as he did. I then started to the hotel, and Baldwin said he intended to have satisfaction. 'Oh, pshaw!' I said, 'I don't want any difficulty with you.' He repeated that he wanted satisfaction. I told him again I did not want anything to do with him, and said: 'There is my hotel; I am going there, and from there to the public square.' I moved up and he and his friend intercepted me, and Baldwin said: 'You are a liar and a coward.' I stepped back, and said: 'I don't care for that; I don't care for your blackguarding.' He then called me 'a damned liar and a damned coward.' I said: 'I understand your opinion of me and don't care what you say. You demand an apology and I refuse. What are you going to do about it?' In the meantime I saw Polk trying to persuade Baldwin to desist. Baldwin then had his hand in his hip-pocket. He advanced and said: 'I say you are a damned liar, a thief,' and something else I did not hear. I put my hand to my ear and asked him what he said. He repeated, and this time I heard him fully. It was like the above, only I heard the damned s—b. That I did not at first hear. He then drew his pistol, and as I saw it coming out of his pocket I jumped for it and grabbed his arm to try and disarm him. I grabbed the hand that had the pistol in it, but did not get a good hold of it. He wrenched his arm from me and struck me with his pistol. He struck me a blow over the eye and another over the head. I then recovered and struck him several heavy blows. Before that he had his pistol up to my head and tried to pull it off, but it would not work. I knocked it down and struck him the heavy blows above mentioned. He staggered back and I then drew my pistol and fired and kept advancing and firing until my pistol was empty. I then started away and looked back and saw him trying to fire. He did, and immediately afterwards I felt that I was shot, and as I was going into the hotel I met Cabell Bullock and told him that I was shot, and I thought that it would kill me, and asked him to go for a doctor; if I was badly hurt I wanted to know it."

"On cross-examination he said that Baldwin fired one shot before I fired. I drew my pistol from my overcoat pocket. Baldwin fired four shots before he fell and one after. When he fired his last shot my pistol was empty. I had been advised of Baldwin's threats through the newspapers and by men, two of whom I remember distinctly. I never saw Baldwin before in my life; did not know any of the parties, but have since learned that one of them was Hechinger & Co.'s Ad.

Do you notice the thousands that wear our Tailor-Made Suits and Overcoats? Many of these garments are rapidly taking the place of Custom-Made Clothing. They are carefully made and trimmed—made to wear, made to win your confidence, not merely to sell. Our purpose has always been, and will be, to give the greatest legitimate value for the amount of money we realize from you, and win business upon the solid merits of our

Tailor-Made CLOTHING!

All this week crowds of people have passed into our salesroom. Our Special Closing Out Sale of Winter Clothing drew them. They departed happy in the knowledge that with us they get better goods for less money than in any other house in the State: By the way, our Great Sale will continue as long as a heavy garment remains unsold, and at the rate we are selling them, those who have not yet procured their share of bargains had better call early. Special new goods and great cuts in Children's and Boys' Suits. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.,

Leading Clothiers and Merchant Tailors, Oddfellows' Hall.

Sheriff Mosley, of Jessamine County. I never heard him say to me that I had written him up in my paper and I don't believe he said it. He did not try to shoot me with his pistol at first; he struck me with it. He made five distinctive efforts to shoot me before I drew my pistol; three times he pointed it at my head and two times at my side. I saw him pulling at the trigger, but I since learned that it was a peculiarly constructed pistol that would not go off easily; to that I owe my life. When asked if he was not a scientific boxer, he said he used to put on the gloves for amusement, but had not done so since he was twenty-one years of age. Green said he was fifty-one years old the 21st of last November, weighed 175 pounds, and was almost entirely deaf. The result of the trial has not yet been learned.

Personal.

Mr. John F. Dearing, a merchant of Poplar Plains, was in town this morning.

Miss Olivia Hord, of Mexico, Mo., and Mrs. Ad Hord, of Fleming, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rogers last night.

Messrs. R. L. Fox and C. C. Clarke and Misses Florence Fox and Zuba Laytham of Mayslick, attended the "Queen of Fame" entertainment at the opera house last evening.

Miss Callie Timberlake left on the noon train yesterday for her home at Winchester, Ky., after a very pleasant visit of several days here, the guest of Mrs. William H. Cox.

Miss Minnie Hearne, daughter of Major Hearne of the Newport Barracks, and Miss Mollie Holmes, of Berlin, were visiting the family of P. Malloy, Esq., of Germantown, the past week.

Lecture on the Prayer Book.

The second lecture in the course will be given Sunday evening by the Rev. Mr. Chapin, at the Church of the Nativity. The subject will be: "The Liturgy Proper, or the Communion Office." Strangers are invited to attend. All will be welcomed.

City Items.

Try Langdon's City Butter Crackers.

School books and school supplies upon most favorable terms, at G. W. Blatterman & Co's.

Come early and have your life-size portrait made. Makes a valuable Christmas present. Kackley's gallery.

The latest styles of wall paper and ceiling decorations, at J. C. Pecor & Co's drug and book store.

D. Hunt & Son are offering great bargains in dry goods and cloaks. A rare opportunity for a genuine bargain. See them. n19dtf

One hundred stamp photos or twenty-four minuettes given free with every order for one dozen cabinets, at Kackley's gallery.

"Her face so fair, as flesh it seemed not. But heavenly portrait of bright angel's hue, Clear as the sky, without a blame or blot, Through goodly mixture of complexion due, And in her cheeks the vermell red did show."

This is the poet's description of a woman whose physical system was in a perfectly sound and healthy state, with every function acting properly, and is the enviable condition of its fair patrons produced by Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Any druggist.

Shackelford's Pharmacy.

Most attractive store in town—in "Cox Building." Fine old wines and liquors for medicinal purposes. Pure drugs. Toilet articles in great variety.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

FURNISHED BY W. A. NORTON.

Yesterday's Closing—May wheat, 85½; May corn, 55½; May oats, 35½. January pork, 14½. To-day's Opening—May wheat, 85½; May corn, 55½; May oats, 35½. January pork, 14½.

We have the Only Machine IN THIS PLACE.

Crescent Heel Plate Machine. Plates on Rubbers double their wear.

CRESCENT

HEEL PLATES,

FOR RUBBERS, is a positive saving. Prevents cutting at the heel. Doubles the wear. Plates attached FREE on Rubbers bought at

MINER'S

Shoe Store.

HOPPER & MURPHY,

—The Reliable and Leading—

JEWELERS,

are now exhibiting the largest and most elegant line of JEWELRY and suitable HOLIDAY PRESENTS ever shown in our city, and in addition to every dollar's worth of goods sold a ticket is given, which entitles you to a chance on a DIAMOND RING valued at $300. No fictitious value, but hard cash, if you desire. No. 43 Second street, Maysville, Ky.

Christmas! Christmas! Christmas!

All are invited to inspect the immense stock of Holiday Goods just received at PAUL HOEFLICH & BRO'S, Market Street, which is composed of

Umbrella Racks, Cigar Racks, Coal Vases, Broom Racks,

of every description; also a fine line of Toilet Goods. A fine line of new dress Goods, Nations, &c. Don't forget that we are closing out our CLOAKS, JACKETS and all WRAPS regardless of cost. Before buying elsewhere give us a call.

PAUL HOEFLICH & BRO.

CLOAKS.

We have just received an invoice of Wraps bought at the closing sale of an Eastern manufactory at about 50 cents on the dollar, and offer them at correspondingly low prices. Note a few of the drives:

Twenty-five New Markets at $3.50, worth 6.50; twenty-five New Markets at 5.00, worth 10.00; twenty-five New Markets in Brown and Black, handsome goods, at 7.50, worth 15.00; fifteen Children's Sacque Cloaks at 1.00; twenty Havelocks at 1.50; twenty-five Ladies' Short Wraps at 4.00, worth 6.00.

BIG DRIVES IN DRESS GOODS!

thirty-eight-inch All Wool Tricots at 40 cents; thirty-eight-inch All Wool Serges 35 cents; elegant Cloth Suits, with Braided Panels, at 8.25, former price 12.50. UNDERWEAR—a magnificent stock at extremely low prices.

BROWNING & CO.,

No. 3 East Second St. Maysville.

J. DAUGHERTY,

—Designer and dealer in—

MONUMENTS, TABLETS,

Headstones, &c. The largest stock of the latest designs. The best material and work ever offered in this section of the state, at reduced prices. Those wanting work in Granite or Marble are invited to call and see for themselves. Second street, Maysville.

JOHN CRANE,

—House, Sign and—

Ornamental Painter.

Graining, Glazing and Paper-hanging. All work neatly and promptly executed. Office and shop, north side of Fourth between Market and Limestone, streets. a19dly